1 John 2:5, “but whoever keeps His word, in him the love of God has truly been perfected, by this we know that we are in Him.”

1 John 2:15, “Do not love the world, nor the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.”

1 John 3:1, “See how great a love the Father has bestowed upon us, that we should be called children of God; and such we are. For this reason the world does not know us, because it did not know Him.”

1 John 3:10, “By this the children of God and the children of the devil are obvious: anyone who does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor the one who does not love his brother.

1 John 3:11, “For this is the message which you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another;”

1 John 3:14, “We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love abides in death.”

1 John 3:16, “We know love by this, that He laid down His life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.”

1 John 2:29, “If you know that He is righteous, you know that everyone also who practices righteousness is born of Him.”

1 John 3:9, “No one who is born of God practices sin, because His seed abides in him; and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.”

1 John 4:8, “The one who does not love does not know God, for God is love.”

1 John 4:9, “By this the love of God was manifested in us, that God has sent His only begotten Son into the world so that we might live through Him.”

1 John 4:10, “In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins.”

1 John 2:2, “and He Himself is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for those of the whole world.”

1. Definition: The Godward side of salvation whereby God's holiness (His righteousness and justice) is satisfied by Jesus Christ's payment for our sins on the cross.

1 John 4:11, “Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.”
