

Heb. 6:19, “This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which enters the Presence behind the veil,

Heb. 6:20, “where the forerunner has entered for us, even Jesus, having become High Priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.”

1. Tabernacle translates a Hebrew word kVvIm (mishkan);, nom. sanctuary, tabernacle; NAKVvIm (1 × , in Ezra 7:15); < NAKDv (settle). The Greek is skhnh/ (skeœeneœ), tent, tabernacle, dwelling; It was also called the Tent of meeting or the Tent of Testimony.

2. The dwelling presence of God was often indicated by a cloud, or lightning or fire. Light also used as a symbol or representation of God's essence, especially His righteousness.

3. The term Shekinah, entered into Hebrew in the intertestamental period to describe this dwelling presence of God.

4. A temporary tent was initially constructed where Moses met with God, until the Tabernacle was completed.
