Warning of False Teaching !!

" But false prophets also arose among the people, just as there will also be false teachers among you, who will secretly introduce destructive heresies, even denying the Master who bought them, bringing swift destruction upon themselves. Many will follow their sensuality, and because of them the way of the truth will be maligned; and in their greed they will exploit you with false words; their judgment from long ago is not idle, and their destruction is not asleep." -2 Peter 2:1-3 NASB

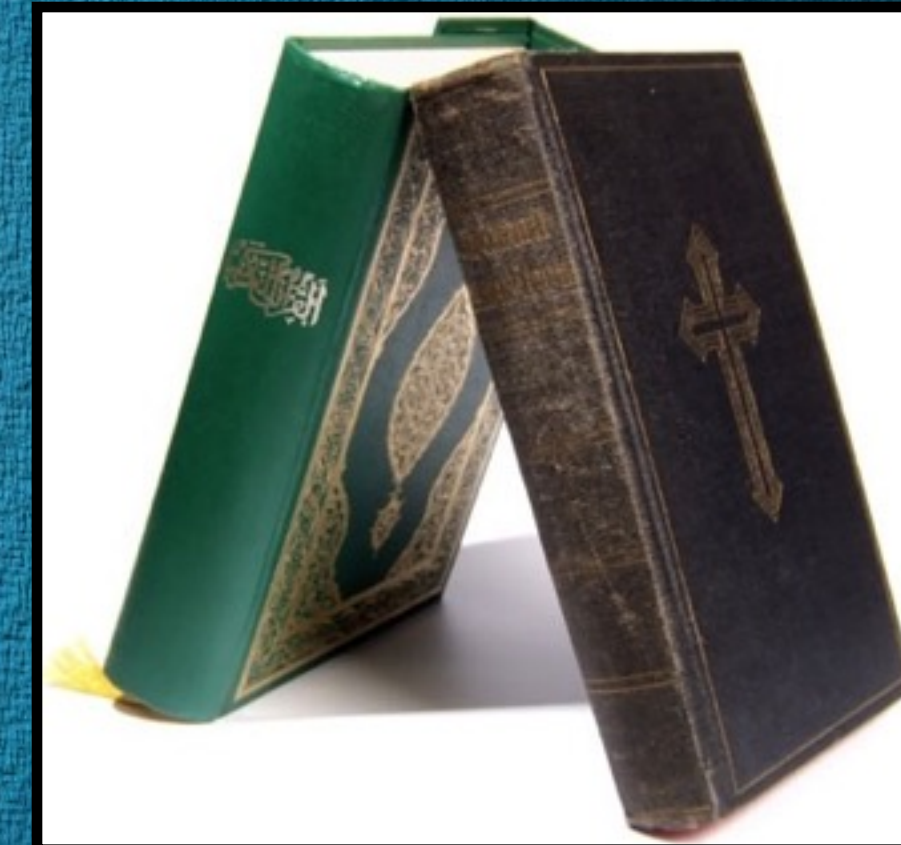

Warning of False Teaching !!

“ But the Spirit explicitly says that in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to deceitful spirits and doctrines of demons, by means of the hypocrisy of liars seared in their own conscience as with a branding iron...”

-1 Timothy 4: 1-2 NASB

Chrislamic Movement?

- ❖ 4 false claims of interfaith ecumenical movement
- ❖ Claim that Christianity & Islam have a “common word”
 - Both the Bible & Quran are recognized as holy books with divine truth
- ❖ Claim that Jehovah & Allah are the same God
- ❖ Claim that Islam is an Abrahamic faith along with Judaism & Christianity
- ❖ Claim that Muslims believe that “Jesus is the Messiah”

Chrislamic Movement?

- ❖ Where does it really come from?

O people of the book!

Come to a common word between us and you, that we worship none but Allah, and that we associate no partners with him, and that none of us shall take others as lords besides Allah.

- Surah 3:64

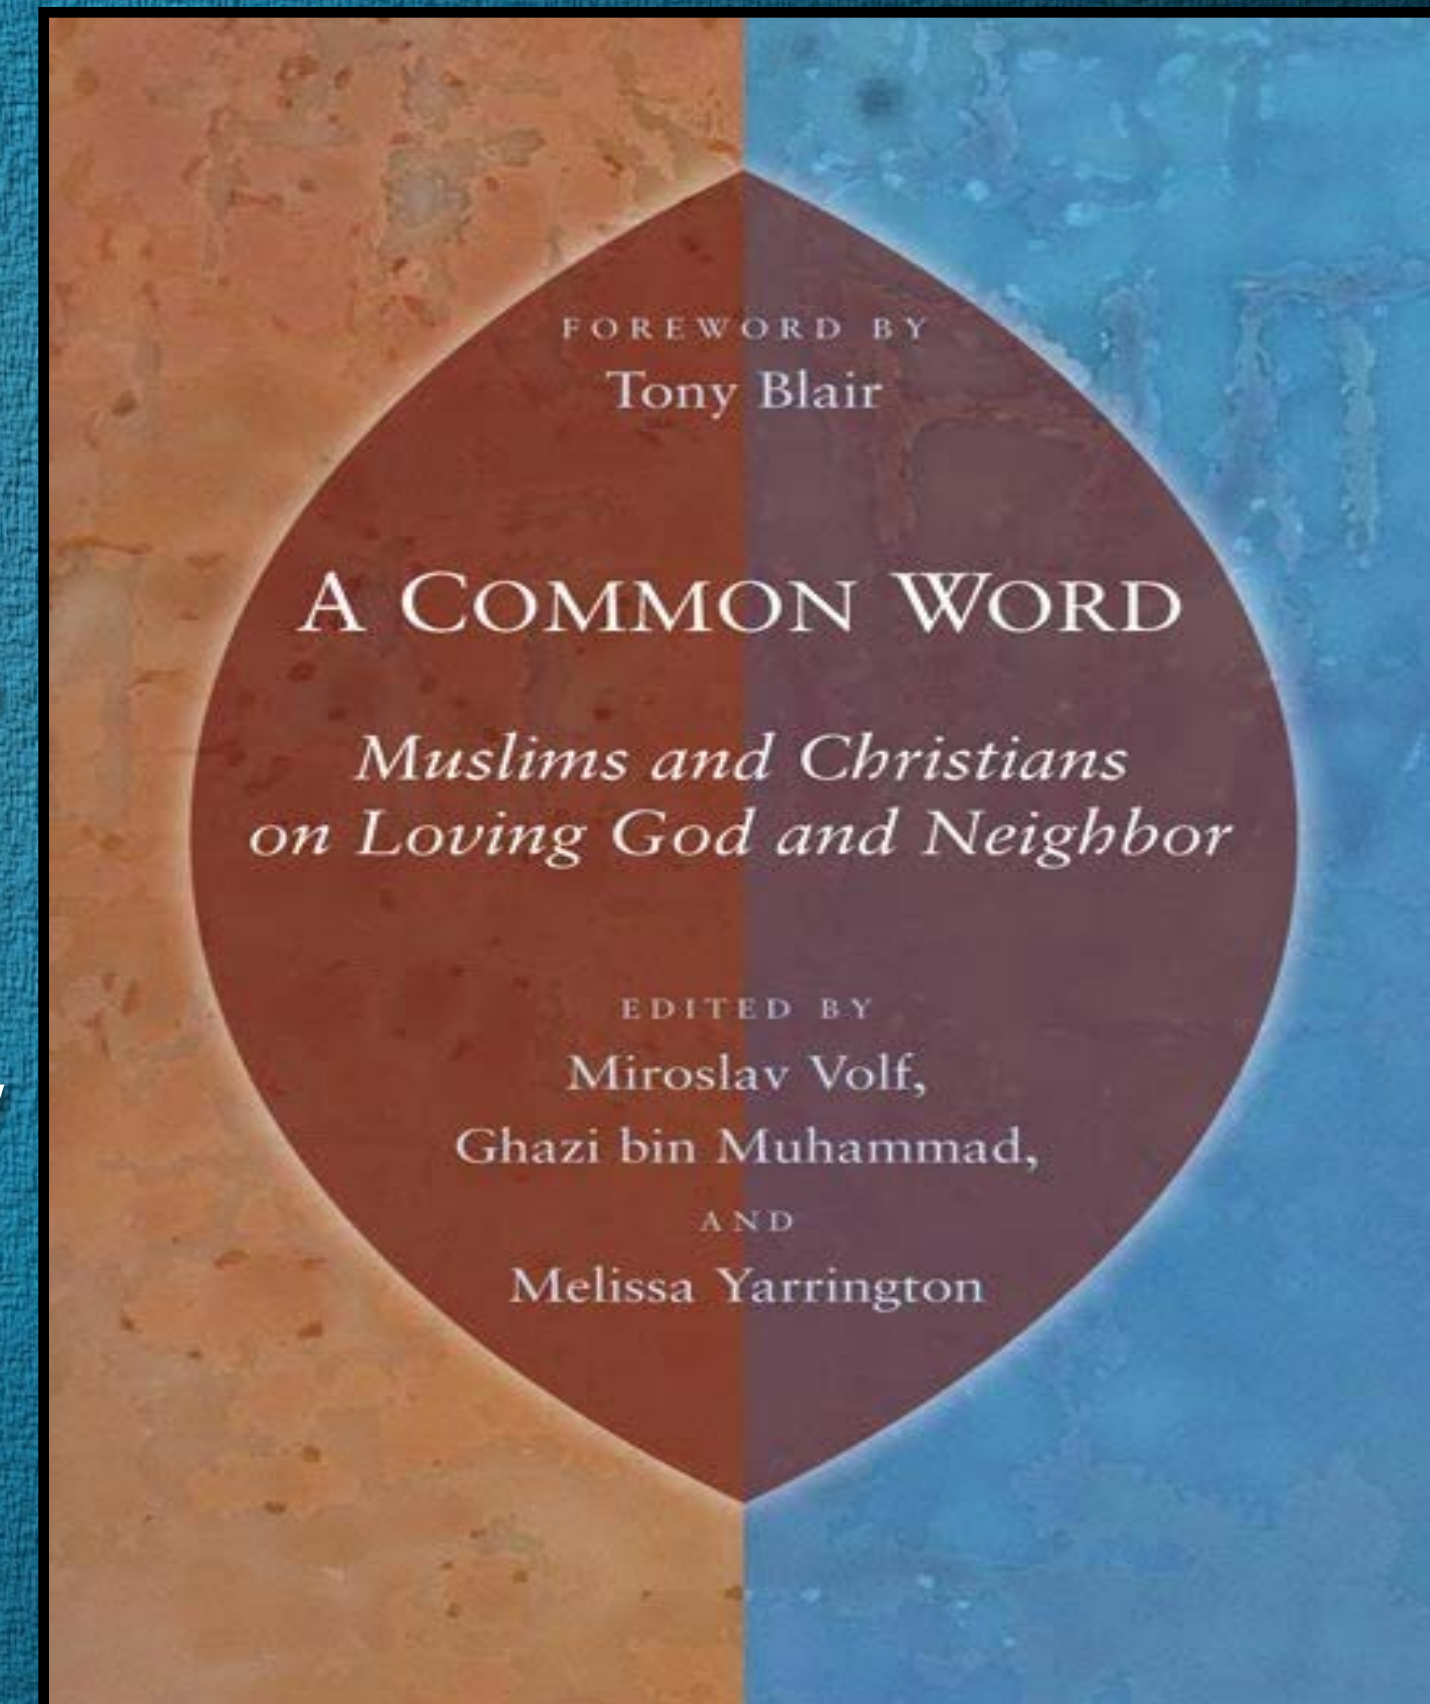

- ❖ Both sources cannot be divine
- ❖ Satanic strategy to refute Christianity & Judaism
- ❖ ROT (W.4.0,1,2)

We are so thankful you are with us to express love in a time of fear.
Today you will hear several presentations.
We recognize that during the presentation you might experience many feelings.
We invite you to write your questions down and give them to an usher for the Q & A.
After the event we invite you to speak to any one of the speakers.

NEIGHBORS IN FAITH

Love in a Time of Fear: Recognizing Muslims as Our Neighbors

Statement

We are people of faith, respecting our differences and celebrating our common humanity. We commit to:

1. Seek out neighborly relationships with people of other faith and/or non-faith traditions.
2. Resist in ourselves and society exclusionist ideologies that contribute to the dehumanization of and violence toward others.
3. Work in the public arena for the human rights of all people.

Amendment 1 to the US Constitution:

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

Participants:

Laila Almounaier was raised in the Seattle-area in a middle class American Muslim family, her strong work ethic, values, faith, and sense of responsibility to community and country come from her upbringing in a practicing Muslim household. Raised and educated in Seattle, she quickly rose in the tech profession, holding senior positions in Product Management at two of the largest retailers in the world, with innovative approaches to selling high-end products. She is a married mother of two wonderful daughters, a proud American Muslim, a U.S. citizen, a registered voter, and a firm believer in the promise of America. Inspired by Islamic teachings of serving God by serving humanity, she has been an active volunteer with CAIR-Washington State and MAPS-AMEN helping educate fellow Americans about their American Muslim neighbors. Prior to graduating from the University of Washington, she served as vice president of the Minority Student Association at her high school where she advocated for acceptance and equal rights.

Sameer Ahmed immigrated to the US 20 years ago. He is passionate about education, interfaith work and social justice. As an avid mountain climber he has traveled extensively across the US, Asia and Europe. In his travels, he has been involved in community based projects surrounding access to education and health care. He is a member of Islamic Society of Whatcom Community and lives in Bellingham.

The Rev. Terry Kylo is a pastor serving The Catacomb Churches, a Lutheran and Episcopal congregation of house churches throughout northwest Washington. He serves as the director of Neighbors in Faith an interfaith effort to recognize Muslims as neighbors and partners in building a more peaceful world, authorized by the Episcopal and Lutheran churches in western Washington. Terry was the recipient of the Faith Action Network Interfaith Leadership Award in 2016, the Interfaith Leadership Award from the Muslim Linda Sarsour is an activist of the highest caliber. She is eloquent, brave and fearless. I am proud to call her an ally and friend.

The disgusting and vile attacks by the Far Right Islamophobes against her only indicate the fear that Allah has blessed her to strike in the hearts of such pitiful haters.

Keep up the good work sister! We are right here for you.
