STEP ONE: Claim a promise

STEP TWO: Think through the doctrinal rationales embedded in the promise

STEP THREE: Appropriate the doctrinal conclusions

Isa. 40:31, “But those who wait on the LORD
Shall renew their strength;
They shall mount up with wings like eagles,
They shall run and not be weary,
They shall walk and not faint.”

What is the doctrinal rationale in the promise?

- 1. Every adversity we face in life is a grace gift from the providence of God, to enable us to grow and mature in the Christian life.

- A. God's Providence is a function of His Sovereignty. Sovereignty emphasizes God's rule or governance of the course of history.
- B. Providence emphasizes God's control of the course of history including both the good and the evil.
- C. Providence means that our lives and the events in our lives are not determined by chance, fate, or luck, but by a personal God who is working all things according to His plan.
- D. Providence therefore is related to the character of God.

What is the doctrinal rationale in the promise?

- 1. Every adversity we face in life is a grace gift from the providence of God, to enable us to grow and mature in the Christian life.

1 Cor. 10:13, “No testing has overtaken you except what is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tested beyond what you are able, but will, with the testing, also make the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it.”

What is the doctrinal rationale in the promise?

- 1. Every adversity we face in life is a grace gift from the providence of God, to enable us to grow and mature in the Christian life.

James 1:2, “My brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various adversities, James 1:3, “because you know that the testing of what you believe (doctrine) produces endurance.

James 1:4, “But let endurance have its maturing work, that you may become mature and complete, lacking nothing.” ~RD

Sovereignty of God: God has determined that mankind will be allotted a certain domain of freedom in human history.

- Man is free to exercise positive volition which is non-meritorious.
- Man is free to accept or reject God's plan of salvation.
- Man is free to be positive or negative after salvation in relationship to Bible doctrine. And,
- Man is free to apply or ignore Bible doctrine.

Sovereignty of God: God has determined that mankind will be allotted a certain domain of freedom in human history.

Omniscience of God: God knows all the knowable, therefore God knows all the potential as well as all the actual.

The Integrity of God: God's Love, Righteousness, and Justice work together in perfect harmony toward the human race.

E. The doctrine of God's Providence means that we can relax in the midst of our adversity knowing that God is in control. He has not been taken by surprise, and He has provided for this situation through Bible doctrine.

Another related promise:

Psa. 55:22, “Cast your burden on the Lord, and He shall sustain you; He shall never permit the righteous to be moved.”

to cause to endure

Here it signifies that God will sustain the faithful in their integrity so that they will not waver or move from the path.

1 Pet. 5:5, “Likewise you younger people, submit yourselves to your elders. Yes, all of you be submissive to one another, and be clothed with humility, for ‘God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble.’

1 Pet. 5:6, “Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time,

1 Pet. 5:7, “casting all your care upon Him, for He cares for you.”

1 Pet. 5:6, “Therefore humble yourselves (aor pass imp 2P) under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time,

1 Pet. 5:7, “[by] casting all your care upon Him,

1 Cor. 10:13, “No testing has overtaken you except what is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tested beyond what you are able, but will, with the testing, also make the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it.”
